CAREER OBJECTIVE

Technical-minded Computer Science student specialising in Python-driven automation, Linux system administration, and optimised database management. Focused on building robust backend architectures and ensuring data integrity through disciplined scripting and environment configuration. Committed to delivering high-performance, scalable solutions with professional precision and technical honesty.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Languages	Python (psutil, psycopg2), SQL, PHP, Java
Linux / OS	Ubuntu, Bash, Cron Automation, venv
Databases	PostgreSQL, MySQL, MongoDB
Tools	Git, Nano/Vim, VirtualBox/VMware

PROJECTS

System Infrastructure Monitor

Python · PostgreSQL · Ubuntu Linux

- Engineered a Python-based monitoring tool to automate tracking of critical Linux system metrics (CPU, RAM, Disk).
- Designed and implemented a PostgreSQL backend to store time-series logs with strict data type integrity.
- Automated data collection via Cron Jobs, enabling persistent 24/7 background system monitoring.
- Managed project dependencies using Linux virtual environments to maintain host OS stability.

StudyHub — Full-Stack Educational Platform (In Development)

React · Node.js · Express · MongoDB Atlas · Supabase

- Built a multi-tier educational resource platform serving JHS, SHS, and University students in Ghana.
- Deployed a cloud-hosted NoSQL database using MongoDB Atlas for scalable data management.
- Implemented cloud-based file storage and retrieval using Supabase Storage.
- Designed a RESTful API backend with Node.js/Express consuming multiple cloud services.
- Architected a multi-cloud solution integrating two independent cloud platforms in one application.

Real Data House

PHP · MySQL · JavaScript · HTML/CSS

- Data bundle sales platform with automated fulfilment and transaction management.
- Fintech-style user flow for purchasing and managing data bundles.
